HARDING ALUMNI HAVE PART IN GERMAN LECTURESHIP

Harding College was well represented at the 8th Annual German Lectureship held at Augsburg, one of Germany's oldest cities, September 19-23. Six nationalities — American, Austrians, Czech, Dutch, German and Swiss — were represented from congregations in Austria, Germany and Switzerland. Six men of the 70 participating were Harding alumni.

As these determined and devoted Christians assembled for five days to cover the theme of "The Christian in the Service of God" they probably thought many times about the hardships and tribulations brought on their forefathers by the Caesars, and most particularly by Augustus, for whom the ancient German city of Augsburg was named. Perhaps as they walked the streets of this Bavarian city they heard echoes in their minds of "There went out a decree from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be taxed."

Gottfried Reichel (BA'53), in reporting on the lectureship, added another historical touch in telling of the church of more than 1,000 members in the city in the days of the Reformation whose earnest desire was to follow the pattern of the New Testament. He related that historical records show that more than 70 men of the group were burned at the stake, while many of the women were drowned in the Lech river, because of their stand on scriptural baptism.

Harding alumni present at the German lectureship were Glenn Boyd (BA'52) Karlsruhe; Loyd Collier (BA'46), Wiesbaden; Klaus Goebbels (BA'56), Frankfurt; Glenn Olbricht (BS'53), Nuernberg; Rob Pitts ('54) Vienna; and Gottfried Reichel (BA'53), Munich.

If You Had a Million

How far would a million dollars go in providing expanded facilities at Harding. If you were to ask each faculty member, dean, or department head, "If you had a million dollars—?" you would get a variety of answers.

If you asked Dean Joseph E. Pryor he would undoubtedly say, "It would take just about that amount for the new science building, fully equipped." President Benson might say, "That would just about take care of our present dormitory needs." Each Harding faculty member would tell you his dream for improving the college: "A new Art-Museum building" — "Alumni House and Continuing Education Center," — "endow a faculty chair in Bible."

Our achievements are limited by our dreams — what do you dream for your alma mater? You can put a foundation under your dreams by becoming more active in your Alumni Association. More than five-thousand strong, this association of Harding ex-students and graduates can do things for the further strengthening of this college, in academics, physical plant, in ability to serve her students.

If you had a million —? Why not start where you are, with what you have?

☆ CHAPTER NEWS ☆

SAINT LOUIS CHAPTER SEES FILM

The newly-organized St. Louis Chapter had its fall meeting on Saturday, October 1, at the Central Church of Christ. About 40 attended the meeting which was presided over by Morgan Richardson, Chapter President. A film, "Communism on the Map", was shown and the announcement was made for a New Year's meeting, and plans discussed for an early spring meeting to furnish high school students information about Harding College. Following the regular meeting, refreshments were served.

ELECTION AT EL DORADO

On Saturday, October 7, the El Dorado Chapter held its fall meeting with about 20 attending. Dr. Clifton Ganus had previously met with these alumni and discussed ways by which the club could work in behalf of Harding. Walter Buchanan (BA'57) was elected President. Following the election of officers, a sound film was shown. Plans are now being made for a prospective student meeting early in '61. Preceding this meeting, refreshments were served.

Alton Hollis Shows Value of Christian Education

I gladly contribute to the alumni fund because I feel it is the duty of every Christian to help preserve schools which teach the principles of Christian living.

If our nation is to survive evil time, we must teach our youth that God is, and that he is a rewarder of those who seek him. This can be accomplished by placing our dollars where the greatest contacts with future leaders are made.

May God bless every effort undertaken to give our greatest natural resource — our children — the right training for Godly living.

The training I received at Harding grows richer and deeper as I grow older. The joy and value of being a Harding graduate is priceless to me.

Alton A. Hollis (BS'33)
Linville, Louisiana

REPORTS OF ALUMNI ACTIVITIES FROM HERE AND THERE

Bill O'Daniel (BS'60) has been accepted as a student at the Hermann School of Physical Therapy in Houston, Texas.

Allan C. Mitchell (BA'52) is currently working with Western Christian College in Weyburn, Saskatchewan, Canada, where they are building for the Lord in the North.

Juanita Parsons ('60) is still unable to work as a result of an auto accident on March 21, 1958. Nita's car was struck from the rear by another car and she received serious injuries which necessitated three operations and five hospital confinements. She is presently at home in Cincinnati, in traction with various neck and back braces.

Calvin ('60) and Joyce Eberly ('61) Conn have recently moved to Senatobia, Miss., to work with the Thyatira church of Christ. Calvin will commute to the Harding School of Bible and Religion in Memphis this fall.

Dr. Henry ('48) and Grace Johnson (BS'48) Farrar are now living in Winston-Salem, N. C. where he is continuing his surgical residency at the City Hospital.

David (BA'54) and Patricia Ault ('57) Porter are now working with the congregation in Fisher, Arkansas.

Gerald Wayne Ebker (BS'60) is now in Manhattan, Kansas, and will be an assistant in math at Kansas State University this fall.

Joe Van (BA'60) and Yvonne Fagan ('61) Olree are now in New Orleans where Joe is working as a Junior Accountant for Price-Waterhouse & Co.

Odis (BA'60) and Beverly Bell ('61) Clayton will be living in Searcy while Odis is employed as an English teacher in the Judsonia School System and Beverly finishes her degree at Harding this fall.

Caroline "Peachy" Hightower (BA'60) worked during summer at a resort hotel on the beach in New Egypt, New Jersey. She is a teacher when school is in session.

James and Nedra Olbricht ('49) McGill are in Nurnberg, Germany, doing mission work. Mrs. McGill taught English and Art at Freed-Hardeman while they were preparing to go to Germany.

Leon Sanderson (BA'54) and his wife, the former Alice Burkhalter of Abilene Christian College, are living in Memphis where Leon is associate minister and song director for the Highland congregation. Both Leon and Alice are continuing their education at Memphis State University.

Glenn ('50) and Lloydene Sanderson ('52) Wall now live in Knoxville, Tenn., where Glenn is on the engineering staff of TVA. Lloydene did post-graduate work at Arkansas State and Harding, and Glenn received his engineering degree from Alabama Polytechnic Institute in Auburn, Ala.

Donald Ross Taylor (BA'60) and his wife and son left September 12 for Verviers, Belgium with the S. F. Timmerman's to do missionary work there. Their address in 2 ru des Deportes, Verviers, Belgium.

Claudette Harris (BA'57) Alexander writes that she is an instructor of music at North Central Christian College in Rochester, Michigan. Her husband will again be the director of the a cappella chorus.

Jim Pitts, BS'49) has recently been promoted to Supervisor of the Plant Technical Service Section of the Jefferson Chemical Company in Port Neches, Texas. He joined Jefferson Chemical in 1950 as a chemist. Our congratulations to him!

Bert (BA'51) and Louise Beamish ('51) Shewmaker are now living in the Cumberland Mountains of Cumberland, Kentucky, where Bert is teaching in the Jr. High School and works with a small congregation leading singing and preaching occasionally.

Bennie (BA'60) and LeVan (Spec.) Porter are in Hutchinson, Kansas, where Bennie is teaching seventh and eighth grade science.

Howard Glenn (BA'52) and Shirley Pegan (BA'52) Boyd, who have been in Karlsruhe, Germany, for nearly three years, plan to return to the U. S. on a three-month visit early next year.

John S. Moore (BS'53) recently was appointed Director of the Division of Terminal Electronics at Florida Christian College. He also continues his position as head of the divisions of physics and mathematics.

Ollie Cope Mason ('41) writes that she has passed the State Merit System Test for a job as a caseworker in Oklahoma.

Dr. Paul and Gloria Fulghum (BS'49) Estes are living in Memphis temporarily while he is working on an internal medicine residency. Gloria is a clinic and teaching dietitian with the University of Tenn. Later, they plan to return to Murfreesboro and Paul's general practice. He is on the board for the beginning of a Christian elementary there.

Gerald ('58) and LaVonne Thompson ('59) Ransom are now working with the Child Haven home in Cullman, Alabama.

Sallie Turner (BA'59) Hightower is attending Johns Hopkins University on a scholarship for the Master of Arts in Teaching. She is one of 47 successful applicants out of 225 for the two-semester program. The first semester is all school work and the second is all teaching at full pay, after which the MAT degree is awarded. Her husband, Joe (BS'59), is in his second year of a graduate assistantship at Johns Hopkins.

Lewis "Sugar" Stewart (BA'57) received the MBA in economics from Texas Tech in August. He is chairman of the Division of Applied Arts at LCC in addition to serving as manager of the LCC Bookstore and sharing with his wife, the former Charlene Kimbro ('59), the supervision of one of the boys' dormitories.

Betty Mitchell ('54) exhibited several paintings in an August benefit show in Pine Bluff for the Arkansas Art Center Drive. One of her paintings was bought by Mrs. Winthrop Rockefeller. She is a secretary for Arkansas Power and Light Company and is active in both art and drama in Pine Bluff.

HOW ABOUT SENDING IN SOME NEWS ABOUT YOU FOR THESE COLUMNS?

LETTERS OF APPRECIATION

Lawyers See Harding's Fruits of Service

We contribute to the Alumni Fund because we continue to see the good fruits of Harding College. Nearly every brotherhood paper coming into our home contains an article concerning Harding students who are announcing their intentions of giving their lives in service to Christ.

This fact proves that the dedicated faculty at Harding is still inspiring young people to "serve rather than be served."

Virgil (BA'46) and Lou Dugger ('48) Lawyer

Sawyers Help Harding To Help Their Children

We have one big reason for contributing to the Alumni Fund and also to Harding College. That reason is two future Hardingites. Our sons, Jerry and Joel already are looking forward to their enrollment dates at Harding which are 1965 and 1969.

We are well aware of what a complicated thing a college is with all of its activities and services. With the increase of students in all colleges in this country we are aware of the increased aid which these schools must have to operate. We only wish we could give more, and possibly in time our gifts can be increased to where we wish them to be.

As the mother and father of these boys we are trying to bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. However, we can't give them their college training ourselves, but we can support Harding College which can.

Wyatt (BA') and Christine Neal (BS'45) Sawyer

Wilma Praises Education, Fellowship, Friendship

Only those who are no longer there can really know what returning to Harding means. I heard many visiting Alumni say this while I was a student, and we were exhorted many times in chapel to appreciate our opportunities and take advantage of them. These talks irked me somewhat because I knew then that I loved Harding; I thought I could not possibly appreciate it more.

However, only since I've been away have I realized the meaning of Christian education, fellowship, friendship and those "ties that bind our hearts" together.

It rolls over one as he sits transported listening to the A Cappella, or in a hushed atmosphere listening to devoted, sincere leaders talking to God, asking His pardon for their failures and reading His word in a sincere, understanding way.

It whispers in the still, silent classroom that has just been vacated, from the balcony where many were inspired during personal evangelism meetings to carry the gospel to "all the world," from the gymnasium and ball fields where fairness and good sportsmanship are taught by precept and example, from the swings where many happy Christian homes have been planned, and, yes, it is living and active in the lives of students who are now attending classes under those faithful and dedicated Christian men and women — the faculty.

I contribute to Harding because I know of no place that's an equal to it. I want to help in some small way to make it possible for others to know the joy I've known. I want it to be a place where any person may grow up into "a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ."

I couldn't have faced the obstacles I've met since leaving Harding had I not been privileged to attend: for this I am grateful. I experience one of my greatest thrills when I return and witness those new and old faces carrying the spirit of Christ throughout the day's activities.

Wilma Campbell (BA'47)

NOTE: Wilma is now back at Harding as a graduate education student.

John G. Reese Grateful for Attending Harding

It is impossible to express how much Harding and the Christian training I received there meant to me. I will always be grateful for the privilege of attending Harding and for the wonderful influence of its devoted, godly teachers. I advise all parents to endeavor to send their children to a Christian college.

Harding is a wonderful school and I am sure it will be a great influence for good in the future.

John G. Reese (BA'35)

Glovers Say, "We Cannot Afford to Do Less"

Ruth and I support Harding College because we strongly believe it provides the scholastic and spiritual environment necessary for a Christian education.

Harding is not a perfect institution: it has its weaknesses as well as its strong-points. But the influence of Christian teachers and students, proper guidance and direction and a wholesome background for Christian training helped in providing a foundation for our lives.

Because of our training we are better prepared to face the difficulties and problems that confront us.

We give because we received so much. And one of the best ways we've found to show our gratitude is to contribute to the Alumni fund. Because others gave we received the benefits of a Christian education.

It is now our duty to do our best to support the high principles for which Harding stands. We cannot afford to do less.

Bob Glover ('59)

NOTE: Bob and Ruth are now working with the Church in England, Ark.
